AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th Day of August, 1768,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there were this Day read at the Board, Extracts of Letters from His Majesty's Ministers at the several Courts of Denmark and Sweden, and at Hamburg, and the Hague, to the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Weymouth, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by which it appears, that the Contagious Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle has broke out, and now rages, with great Violence, in the Dominions of the Kings of Denmark and Sweden; in the Dutchies of Holstein, Mecklenburg, and Cleves; in the Neighbourhood of Hamburg, and upon the Frontiers of the United Provinces; and that some Symptoms of it had appeared within the United Provinces—His Majesty, taking the same into His Royal Consideration, and being sensible of what Importance it is to His Majesty's Subjects, to prevent the said Contagious Distemper from being brought into these Kingdoms, by the Importation of the Hides, Horns, and Hoofs, of such infected Cattle, doth hereby order, with the Advice of His Privy Council, that the utmost Care be taken, not to permit any Entry to be passed for the Hides of Horned Cattle, either raw or salted, or Horns and Hoofs, which are already, or may hereafter be brought from the Places aforementioned directly, or from any other Port, into any of the Ports of Great-Britain or Ireland, until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be further signified.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lord Lieutenant of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

St. James's, August 24.

This Day M. de Vignola, Resident from Venice, had his Audience of Leave; and M. Imberti, his Successor in the same Character, his first private Audience, to deliver his Credentials.

And Count Poggi, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Duke of Modena, had his Audience of Leave of His Majesty.

To which they were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Shelburne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, August 25.

This Day M. de Vignola, Resident from Venice, had his Audience of Leave; and M. Imberti, his Successor in the same Character, his first private Audience.

And Count Poggi, Minister Plenipotentiary from the Duke of Modena, had his Audience of Leave of Her Majesty.

To which they were introduced by the Honourable Robert Brudenell, Esq; Vice-Chamberlain to Her Majesty, and conducted by the Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Admiralty Office, August 19, 1768.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-Sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on the 8th Instant, about Three o'Clock in the Morning, the Brig Dutcheff of Leinster, of Dublin, whereof Bartholomew Sinnott was Master, bound from Dublin to Dunkirk, in Ballast, being about Three Leagues off Cape Cornwall, struck against something which appeared to be a Fish, or Piece of Shipwreck, and which suddenly disappeared; whereupon the Master immediately tried the Pumps, and found the Water had got over the Ballast; upon which he hove the Vessel to, and got out the Boat, in order to save his own and People's Lives, and, in about Ten Minutes after they quitted her, she sunk. The Master and Crew of the said Vessel got safe on Shore the next Day at St. Mary's Pier in the Island of Scilly.

Ph. Stephens.

Admiralty-Office, August 23, 1768.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-Sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on Tuesday the 16th Instant, the Ship London, of the Burthen of about 130 Tons, whereof William Knock was Master, bound from London to Riga, in Ballast, having sprung a Leak, and made a great Deal of Water, the Master was obliged, for the Preservation of his own, and the Lives of the People, to run her on the Main near the South Pier in the Port of Yarmouth in Norfolk.

Ph. Stephens.

Whitehall, August 27, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on Tuesday Evening last, August the 23d, a Body of Sailors, to the Number of 500 or 600, being riotously and tumultuously assembled, came down to Limehouse, and then sent off Ten of their Number in a Boat to the Ship Middleton, Henry Clark, Commander, having Felons on Board, sentenced to be transported to His Majesty's Plantations in America; which said Ten Persons forcibly boarded and entered the said Ship, declaring they would hinder her proceeding in her Voyage, as also every other outward-bound Vessel in the River Thames, unless their Masters entered into Articles with their Men for advanced Wages; and for this Purpose carried away the Chief Mate of the said Ship against his Will, and at the same Time extorted Money from the Master of the said Ship, for their Boat-Hire, by threatening to strip the Ship of all her Rigging, and to turn the Felons on Shore: His Majesty, for the Discovery of the Offenders in this most daring Insult on His Government, and in order to bring them to Justice, is pleased hereby to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Ten Persons, who shall make Discovery of one or more of his Accomplices, so that he or they be convicted of the said Offence; and, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is pleased to promise to any Person who shall discover one or more of the said Offenders, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS, to be paid on Conviction by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

And whereas Information has been given, that, on the same Evening, and the Morning following, divers other Ships in the River Thames were likewise forcibly boarded, and several of their Men carried away by Violence, under the same Pretence of not suffering the Ships to sail till the Seamen's Wages are increased: His Majesty is pleased, in like Manner, for the Discovery of the said Offenders, to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Accomplices therein, and a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, to any Person who shall make such Discovery; to be paid, in the like Manner, on Conviction of them, or any of them.

St. James's, August 27, 1768.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, That notwithstanding the well-adapted Plan, which the Manufacturers in Spitalfields are vigorously pursuing for the Benefit of the Journeymen in every Branch of the Manufactory, yet a great Number of evil-disposed Persons, armed with Pistols, Cutlasses, and other offensive Weapons, and in Disguise, assembled themselves together about the Hour of Twelve in the Night of the 20th Day of August Instant, and forcibly entered into the Dwelling-House of Nathaniel Farr, a Journeyman Weaver, situate in Pratts Alley near Spitalfields aforesaid, and cut to Pieces and destroyed the Silk-Works then manufacturing in Two different Looms there, belonging to Mess. Phipps and Everard, of Primrose-Street; and also forcibly broke open and entered the Dwelling-House of Elizabeth Pratt in the same Alley, and then and there feloniously and maliciously murdered one Edward Fitchet, a Lad of about Seventeen Years of Age, by wilfully Shooting him through the Head with a Pistol, which was laden with several square cut Pieces of Lead or Pewter, and several Times fired at another Person in the said last-mentioned House: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said several Outrages and Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W E Y M O U T H.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said several Manufacturers do hereby promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) to be paid on Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders, by their Attorney and Solicitor Thomas Phillips, in Wood-Street, Spitalfields.

Tho. Phillips.

St. James's, August 25, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Door of the Counting-House of Mess. Johnston and Smith, Bankers, in the Exchange at Edinburgh, was, on Friday the 12th Instant, in the Night, opened by some wicked Person or Persons unknown, (who it is supposed made Use of a counterfeit Key for that Purpose;) and that Bank Notes, small Notes, and Silver, amounting in the Whole to 830 l. 2 s. as hereunder mentioned, were stolen out of Drawers in the said Counting-House, and carried off, (225 l. of which was afterwards found in the Streets) viz.

Dundee Notes (Jobson's) - - - - -	40	0	0
	830	2	0

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above Crimes, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person principally concerned therein) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Crimes, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W E Y M O U T H.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Mess. Johnston and Smith do hereby promise a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted;) to be paid by them on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, August 19, 1768.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that His Majesty's Commissioners of Excise have, by Letters from their Officers at Scarborough and Hull, dated respectively the 9th and 13th of this Instant August, received an Account of a Murder having been committed on John Smith, late Officer of Excise, who, together with other Officers, had seized a Quantity of Run Goods; and that, after the Seizure and securing of the said Goods, several Persons, amongst whom were Valentine Bailey of Brockley, and Joseph Haines of Hackness, assaulted the said Officers, and some Person, deliberately and maliciously presenting a Pistol close to the Breast of the said John Smith, killed him on the Spot: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices in the said Murder, so that he or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W E Y M O U T H.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted;) to be paid by their Secretary on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

The above-named Valentine Bailey is about Five Feet Eight Inches high, pale Complexion, straight light-coloured Hair, lately served in the Militia for the County of York, is about Thirty Years of Age, and by Trade a Taylor.

Joseph Haines is about Five Feet Six Inches high, fresh Complexion, black curling Hair, waddles in his Gait, is about Thirty Years of Age, and lately followed the Business of a Shopkeeper at Hackness aforesaid.
